Legal basis for the processing

We, and service providers we engage, process data subjects' personal information exclusively for the following purposes:

Consent:

We will process your personal information where you have expressly consented to the processing thereof. For example:

- in the form of specific consent;
- if you contact us using our contact form (for more information, see section).

To Comply with Contractual Obligations:

We will carry out administrative activities which includes but is not limited to liaising with data subjects (telephonically or via email) for invoicing, collecting payments and delivery of services or for any other purposes related to the our contractual obligations to the data subject.

To Comply with Legal Obligations:

Personal information is also collected and processed in order to comply with any legal obligation imposed on us, which includes but is not limited to our duty to monitor and provide notification.

In Pursuit of our legitimate interests or that of any third parties:

We may process your data where necessary to pursue our legitimate interests or the legitimate interests of third parties. This includes but is not limited to:

- Enforcement of legal claims and defence in legal disputes;
- Prevention and investigation of criminal acts;
- Preservation of IT security and IT operations.

Retention of Records

The criteria used to determine the period of storage of personal information is the respective statutory retention period. After expiration of that period, the corresponding data is routinely deleted, as long as it is no longer necessary for the fulfilment of the contract or the initiation of a contract.
